Treasure Island Renovates Convention Area and Offers Group Events at Gilley's

Las Vegas—Treasure Island Las Vegas recently completed more than $1.7 million in conference and meeting space renovations. The upgrade offers a new modern look and image to the popular series of convention ballrooms and meeting rooms with new furniture, wallpaper, wall furnishings, carpet and audio system.

Treasure Island's design provides more than 15,000 square feet of meeting space in three distinct areas:

- The Treasure Island Ballroom offers a performance stage and 11,808 square feet that can be divided into six unique areas. The ballroom can seat groups up to 1,100;
- The Caribbean Room has 3,120 square feet and the ability to be divided into three distinct rooms. The room can seat groups up to 210;
- The Mediterranean Room offers 598 square feet and can seat up to 40 people.

For those who don't require meeting space, but want to hold a special event, Gilley's Saloon, Dance Hall & Bar-B-Que offers groups of five to 1,400 the opportunity to hold their event at one of the most unique venues on the Strip. Gilley's offers groups a chance to drink and dine while overlooking the Sirens of TI show, ride the mechanical bull, engage in a contest of beer pong or have a line-dancing party. Packages can be customized to meet the needs of the group.
