Treasure Island Builds $6.5 Million Convention Space Expansion

Las Vegas—Treasure Island Las Vegas is adding 12,500 square feet to its existing conference and meeting facilities. The $6.5 million expansion is set to open early 2017, bringing TI's total convention space to more than 30,000 square feet.

The new convention area is located on the ground level with a panoramic view of the tropical outdoor pool. Adjacent to both Starbucks and the Mystère Theatre, the expansion will connect to the existing 18,000 square feet of convention space via escalators.

The addition includes the 8,000 square foot Antilles Ballroom, 1,300 square foot Bahamas Room and 1,300 square foot Coral Room. The Antilles Ballroom offers four breakout rooms ranging from 1,060 to 1,961 square feet. Existing rooms include the 11,808 square foot Treasure Island Ballroom with its performance stage and six breakout rooms; the 3,120 square foot Caribbean Room and 598 square foot Mediterranean Room.

The new meeting space will accommodate nearly any budget for groups of seven to 700, in addition to the current space that will accommodate groups up to 1,200.

The convention facilities feature the latest state-of-the-art technology, supported by Treasure Island's onsite audiovisual staff. All events at Treasure Island also have access to customized food and beverage from the award-winning TI Catering & Banquet Services.
